EDITOR'S NOTE

The Washington County Historical Society presents herewith the history of the Buchanans who arrived in what is now Washington County at a very early day — 1827-1828. Six Buchanans — three of them heads of families — were already here in 1829 when the first Sheriff's Census was taken.

This family is important in the history of our county, not only because its members were first-comers — pioneers who blazed a civilization out of a wilderness — but because it produced so many teachers and preachers whose influence on the cultural development of Washington County can hardly be over-estimated.

This booklet, in our opinion, is a model of genealogical research and writing. Allan S. Humphreys began the work two years ago. At that time he was chairman of the Washington County Historical Society's genealogy committee and he was a professor of chemistry in the University of Arkansas. He is now a teacher in the School of the Ozarks at Point Lookout, Missouri. He had previously contributed histories of the Edmiston, Bates, Botefuhr and other early Washington County families. Also, he published, some years ago, the authoritative history of the Humphreys in America.

It is with a great deal of pride that the Washington County Historical Society presents the history of the pioneer Buchanan family, written by one of the area's most capable genealogists.

DESCENDANTS OF THE BUCHANAN FAMILIES
WASHINGTON COUNTY, ARKANSAS

One often hears mentioned "The First Families of Virginia." Probably the most authentic listing of early families in Washington County, Arkansas, comes from what is known as the Sheriff's Census of 1829. This important list carries the names of James, Robert, Alexander, William, Isaac, and John Buchanan. These six men have sometimes been listed as brothers. James and Robert were full brothers. Alexander was their half brother. William, Isaac, and John were the sons of Thomas, who was the eldest brother of James and Robert. But Thomas did not come to Washington County until late in life. Andrew, another brother of Thomas, James and Robert, is not listed because he did not reach Washington County until September 1829. All of these men were descendants of a Samuel Buchanan and as he is believed to be the immigrant ancestor, this record will start with him.

(1) SAMUEL¹ BUCHANAN, is said to have been born about 1690, in Ireland. He came to Chester County, Pennsylvania, in 1702, and later moved on into Virginia. The exact date of his death is unknown but his will was dated 11 October 1774, in Washington County, Virginia. When and where he was married is also unknown but his will names Martha as his wife.

Records indicate that there were more children in the family than just those named in the will. Executors of the will were: Samuel Edmundson and Thomas Wilson. Witnesses were: William Edmiston and Andrew Buchanan, who may have been a brother.

Court records, land surveys, marriage records, and wills in Washington County, Va., show Andrew, David, James, John, Joseph, Moses, Matthew, Robert, Samuel, and William Buchanan, all living in Washington County, Va., during the years 1777 to 1817.

- ii. Robert, b. unknow; d. ca. 1810; m. 1761 to Mary ----.
2. iii. Moses, b. unknown
- iv. John, b. unknown
- v. Andrew, b. unknown

(2) MOSES² BUCHANAN, (Samuel,¹), married Elizabeth ----- . The family is said to have moved from Virginia to Lincoln Co., Tennessee. No complete list of the children is available.

Their thirteen children were: Stanford Riley, Rachel, Lucinda, Armina, Nancy; Martha, James Irbin, Marion, William Chambers, Emily, Mary Elizabeth, Thomas, and Margery.

(3) JOHN² BUCHANAN, (Samuel¹). His birth, death, and marriage dates are unknown. His first wife was possibly an Edmiston, as the fourth son had that for his middle name and the eldest daughter gave her eldest son that for his given name. The second wife was Jane, who is said to have lived to the advanced age of 107. She made her home with her daughter Elizabeth, who was the wife of Rev. George Morrow, of Washington Co., Ark.

John, with his sons Andrew, Robert, James, and Alexander, and his son-in-law Coleman Cox, came and settled on Big Mulberry, in Arkansas, in 1818. There is no evidence that this John Buchanan ever came on to Washington County.

Children of John and his first wife, surname BUCHANAN:

5. i. Thomas, b. 14 Aug. 1776
 ii. Samuel, b. 13 March 1778; m. Rachel Greenfield.

The front cover is missing but the above appears on the dividing sheet between the OLD and the NEW TESTAMENTS.

Recorded on one page were the names and birth dates for the nine children of John Buchanan, by his first wife, and the four children by his second wife, Jane, who lived and died in the house where the BIBLE is now located.

On another page were recorded the birth dates for Andrew (a son of John by his second wife, Jane,) and his wife, Lavina, and the names and birth dates of the first four of their children.)

James and Elizabeth are both buried in Prairie Grove Cemetery, and in the adjacent vault lies buried Greenfield Buchanan, who was living with them in 1830; was witness to a land sale 16 Dec. 1837, and died 1838. He was probably a nephew being educated by them.

Robert and Mary were both charter members of the C.P. church in Cane Hill in 1828, and he was an elder. They are said to have lived for a time in Madison Co., Ark., but were in Washington Co. in 1860 when the census was taken. Robert was then a well-to-do farmer in Richland township, with real estate valued at $4,000 and personal property valued at $12,000.
